

Everyday Heroes

Welcome to your autumn term homework. As this topic will continue for the whole of this half term, you can choose to do 2 activities. One piece of optional homework will be collected approximately every 2 weeks. We hope you enjoy the tasks and look forward to seeing all of your amazing work.

Choice 1 to be handed in by Monday 27th March. Choice 2 to be handed in by Monday 3rd April.

What's your emergency? What vehicles do emergency services drive? Make a model of a fire engine, ambulance or police car 	You're my hero.  Write a report about an everyday hero of your choice such as the Coast Guard.	Art attack. Think of what police, fire fighters or ambulance service do to help us. Create a picture or a collage 	Poets corner. Write a poem about a hero in your life. You could learn this off my heart and recite it to your friends/class.
Scientists in the making. Science: Carry out an experiment at home. Record what you did and what you found out.  (There is a link on the Extended Homework Grid to a site with some ideas for experiments.)	Multiplication Master Practise all the multiplication and division facts for the three times table. How will you prove that you know all these? You could sing a song or challenge yourself to write down all the facts in a minute. 	Trivial Top Trumps Compare the emergency services by creating a set of top trumps? 	Historical heroes. Use technology to create a presentation about a historical hero such as Florence Nightingale.
