Year 6 Football Tournament, Horsham Park, Friday 30th September

Squad: Joe Holland, Will Gosling, Tom Martin, Will Couldwell, Toby Barfoot, Adam Chennell, Ethan Dronfield, Jamie Smith and Barney Hoad

This saw our first competitive matches of the season, after finishing fifth in a friendly tournament a fortnight before. We proved to be very tight in defence, only letting in one goal in open play throughout! After a win and a draw we won our group and progressed to the semi-finals. Following a brilliant performance we narrowly lost one nil to the eventual winners, the opposition's coach remarking how much we had improved in two weeks. This meant the third / fourth place playoff final – another close game could not see the teams separated at full time, the match finishing nil, nil. Sudden death penalties ensued and unfortunately, just like England, we just missed out! However the boys played with real passion and I am sure we will improve again and go one better in the next tournament.
